The Honorable Theodore C. Stratbert
Director
United States Information Agency
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Mr. Stratbert:

I have read with interest your second semi-annual report to Congress, forwarded to me by Mr. Washburn's letter of 7 September.

While Mr. Dulles has already expressed this Agency's point of view, I would like to add a note of my personal appreciation for the fine cooperation which we have enjoyed.

Sincerely,

SIGNED

C. F. Cabell
Lieutenant General, USAF
Deputy Director

Please prepare any appropriate comments.

Returned per [redacted] conversation with [redacted] and my conversation with you.

MEMORANDUM FOR: GENERAL CABELL

It now develops that USIA sent numerous copies of this out. DCI and Bissell each received the same.

Both Bissell and ☐ recommend a reply similar to the one I have drafted.
